Re: RHCG Safety Corp., 29-CA-161261 and 29-RC-157827

Dear Erin Schaefer:

This will acknowledge receipt of Counsel for the General Counsel's Cross Exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Decision and Supporting Brief, and Counsel for the General Counsel's Answering Brief to Respondent's Exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Decision.

Section 102.46(e) of the Board's Rules and Regulations allows any party who has not previously filed exceptions to file cross-exceptions to any portion of the administrative law judge's decision within 14 days from the last date on which exceptions and any supporting brief may be filed. Respondent's request for an extension of time to file exceptions in this matter was granted to June 29, 2016. As such, cross-exceptions were due to be filed 14 days later, i.e., by July 13, 2016. Charging Party/Petitioner filed a request for an extension of time for filing Answering Briefs to Exceptions, which was granted to July 27, 2016. An extension of time for cross-exceptions was neither requested nor granted. A request for an extension of time to file an answering brief to exceptions does not enlarge the time to file cross-exceptions. P & M Cedar Products, Inc., 282 NLRB 772, fn. 1 (1987). Cross Exceptions, therefore, remained due to be filed by July 13, 2016.

Accordingly, Counsel for the General Counsel's Cross Exceptions are untimely and cannot be forwarded to the Board for consideration.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Roxanne Rothschild
Deputy Executive Secretary
